Dr. Raymond DiGiuseppe, a professor of Psychology at St. John’s University in New York, has published extensively on the topic of anger. His most recent book, coauthored with Dr. Chip Tafrate, is Understanding Anger Disorders. His present work involves the assessment and treatment of anger and other behavioural problems in children, adolescents and adults.

This session will address:
- what to do when your child or teenager is angry;
- practical strategies for home;
- how to diffuse your child’s anger in a positive way; and
- when to seek additional help.
